

MARBLE HILL PRESS.

VOL. XI.

MARBLE HILL, BOLLINGER COUNTY, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1892.

No. 44

LOCAL AND GENERAL

—The County Dads are at work.

—Old papers can be had at this office.

—W. E. Rockwell now occupies the Rogers property.

—Mr. Haley has moved into the widow Seabaugh's property.

—Eighteen pounds of granulated sugar for $1 at N. E. Hall's.

—Some of our industrious farmers have begun turning the soil.

—In Kansas City last year, 18,000 mules were bought and sold.

—The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.

—C. P. Caldwell has moved into his house, vacated by J. G. Finney.

—Twenty people perished in a burning hotel in New York Saturday.

—A fellow in Ironton stole a coffin from an undertaker's shop in Ironton.

—The value of real and personal property in Missouri is $910,000,000.

—Mrs. Mary Smith moved last Thursday, to her farm south west of Lutesville.

—Geo. F. Kurre, of the Press, went to the Cape Monday and returned Tuesday.

—Strictly Pure, Northern Black Seed Oats for sale by O. J. Snider, Lutesville.

—J. G. Finney moved to his farm two miles east of town last Thursday.

—The postoffice was moved Monday into the side room of the Bohnsack building.

—State Supreme Court No. 2 has decided that the hotel-keepers' dead-beat law is valid.

—A great reduction in ladies' watch and neck chains at Dr. A. B. Jaques' store, Lutesville.

—Reports of horses being stolen from the county jail.

—The horsewappers have possession of the public square, and "their right there is none to dispute."

—Don't you know Dr. Jaques' Compound Cough Syrup is the best to cure coughs, colds and pneumonia?

—Editor Pigg of Farmington was a caller at this office Monday. He at one time ran a small paper here.

—VALENTINES.—Erich Sander will have valentines of every description from now until after February 14.

—As to social gatherings, the young people of this town have not been "in it" here of late. What's the matter?

—Cheer up, poor maiden all forlorn, Cheer up, no longer weep, dear; Cast about and make your choice; Your time has come—it's leap year.

—Don't you know Dr. Jaques' Good Samaritan will relieve colic in Man or Horse quicker than any other medicine?

—Teach the young that idleness is a disgrace and that soft hands are not a badge of noble character by any means.

—A Sikeston man won about $1,000 by backing his judgment as to the result of the Local Option election in Scott county.

—The Governor of Oklahoma could barely read and write when he was 21 years old. Ten years later he was a lawyer in high standing.

—A Bates county man, who says he has traveled 50,000 miles in the last twenty years going to the creek for water, is now digging a well.

—Since the people of Scott county decided by vote that their preference was "wet," seven liquor licenses have been granted by the court.

—A man may wear patched clothing and not be dishonored. But water is pretty cheap all over the world—where men usually live—and uncleanness is a disgrace.

—We are just in receipt of the annual report of James M. Beibart, State Auditor, which gives a clear and concise statement of the financial condition of the great State of Missouri.

—Mr. Rogers, who is editing one of the best papers in Arkansas at Jonesboro, that State, was in Marble Hill Sunday and Monday on a visit. He did not forget to give the Press man a hearty shake of the hand.

—Read H. W. Boss' ad.

—Preaching in the Christian Church Saturday night and Sunday.

—Lutesville W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. S. V. Jaques' Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

—Frank Siddall, the Philadelphia soap man says: "I have confined my advertising entirely to newspapers. The man who does not read newspapers does not use soap."

FOR SALE.—One span of four-year-old mules; two sets of harness and one light 2-horse wagon. Parties desiring to buy please call on or address

A. WARREN, JR., Glen Allen, Mo.

—The County Court will probably make some arrangements for providing the booths for use in voting under the Australian system at its present sitting. A number of southeast counties have already done so.

—You can highly recommend them to the farmers as something extra fine, is what a number of the St. Louis exchanges say of the northern black seed oats for sale by O. J. Snider, Lutesville.

—Programme for the next meeting of the Bollinger County Teachers' Association: Physiology—Motor apparatus; History—Causes of the Revolution; Geography—North America; Language Lessons—Taught, how and when?

APPLE TREES FOR SALE.—Old and new varieties. Early, fall and late. Good trees with good roots. 10 cts. each. Terms cash. Discount on large orders. Call and see them, or address

LAURENCE C. GRIFFITH, Beesville, Mo.

—Those youngsters who occasionally make nocturnal trips over this town, throwing stones on people's houses and otherwise disturbing them, had better cease operations. It will be to their own interest. Their fingers are "on the beam."

—There will be a free W. Leachman

—Although he may not win the prize, though fortune e'er before him flies, his conscience is at rest. Who ever higher seeks to rise And in the path of duty tries To do his level best?

—Joseph Shrum of near Glen Allen killed a hog some time ago which, after being dressed, weighed 428 pounds. This is the largest porker raised in Bollinger County for a long time, that we have heard of.

—There will be a box supper at Glen Allen March 5th, to raise money for the Methodist Church at that place. Each lady is expected to bring a box with supper for two, and the gentlemen will buy the same at 25 cts. each.

—Isaac Presnell, a recent subscriber to this paper, was in town Monday, and brought us a new subscriber, for which we are very thankful. Isaac is a man of superior judgement and is free in his commendation of the Press as a village newspaper.

—Ex-Judge N. M. Zimmerman has just completed a building at Glen Allen for his sons. The building is two stories high, with six rooms on the second floor, which will be occupied as a residence by Avery and Cicero Zimmerman. The first floor will be occupied by these enterprising gentlemen as a store-room.

—If you are a friend to us and to the party that we advocate the principles of, show it by helping us to increase our circulation. Ask your neighbor to subscribe. Tell him of the great pleasure, information, satisfaction and instruction to be derived from an investment of $1. If each of our present subscribers will get us one new subscriber our circulation will double itself. See!

—There is going to be an exciting contest over the Judgeship of the Tenth Judicial Circuit. Judge Harry O'Bryan is a candidate for renomination, but he will be closely pursued by Albert DeReign of Scott, H. C. Riley of New Madrid and Geo. W. Carleton of Pemiscot.

Mr. Riley has heretofore led the O'Bryan forces and is said to be a brilliant lawyer. Mr. Carleton has been for many years a member of the Legislature and is now in the State Senate, and besides an able lawyer is also an excellent newspaper man.—Republic.

—Delaware still has a law which provides for punishment, the use of the piller and whipping-post, and only last week the law was enforced, to the disgrace of this civilized country of ours.

—The Cape Talk's talk was short, it having met the same fate of a number of other papers which have been launched at the Cape of Bad Hope—for newspaper men. Cape Girardeau is bound to maintain its reputation as a newspaper graveyard.

—Have you grease spots on your clothing? If so call and purchase a bottle of our Magic Erasive Fluid. A single bottle will convince you. 15 cents will buy a bottle.

A. R. JAQUES.

[It is the best we ever used—Ed.]

—Next Sunday is St. Valentine's day. In ancient times it was a custom for young people to send professions of love and affection to each other, and it is practiced to some extent yet, but among some the custom has degenerated to the extent of sending comic (and some times insulting) messages and pictures to people on this day.

—Justice Bowman's Court was in session Tuesday, and the following cases were disposed of: State vs. Wm. Hanners, charged with petit larceny, dismissed. The State vs. Anthony Freese, charged with felonious assault, plea of guilty to common assault, and fined $10 and costs. Freese also plead guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was fined $50 and costs.

—The Australian ballot system proved quite a success on its first trial in Southeast Missouri, at the recent election in this county. The impossibility of finding out how any one voted did away with all

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

Mr. A. Smith is able to be up again.

Will Smith has gone back to his native state.

Had a runaway in town Friday evening last.

Dr. Jaques has been abed for the last few days.

Dr. Sanford's office is now located in the Ellis building.

The stove factor started up last week and is running ten hours a day.

Miss Cardova Barnhart of Wayne county was the guest of Mrs. George L. Myers' wife a few days ago.

We still urge those that mean to buy lots in Lutesville to buy in the near future or you will miss a bargain.

Mr. Trautwein has put in a new flouring roller in his mill, which will do better work, and better work means a better reputation for his mill.

The Lutesville school board have ordered a library case made for the public school. The people of Lutesville are alert on education as well as mining.

In the old slave days the courts held that the children of the negro woman were negroes and should be dased as slaves. The Land Department of the Government naturally followed the same rule in defining the status of half-breed Indians, and this was always considered good law until the act was passed for the allotment of lands in severalty to Indians. The boot seems to pinch the other foot now, and under a recent opinion of the United States the half-breed that he ranks as a white man.

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were

—The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court last Saturday, was witnessed by a crowd of spectators. Mr. Marshall represented the State and L. S. Kinder was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Kinder won the admiration of most present by the able manner in which he conducted the defense, and many were —The case of the State vs. Williams for herding cattle on land not his own, which came up in court